LOCAL MATTERS

For this section slight changes in temperature, local rains followed by fair weather, light to fresh variable winds.

DEATH OF JUDGE MEADE.—Judge Nathaniel Burwell Meade, judge of the Corporation Court of Alexandria, died at Marshall, Fauquier county, yesterday evening, in about an hour after reaching that place from this city. He was on his way to his country seat, near Marshall, whither he was going in the hope that his physical condition would be improved by the change. He had been a sufferer from heart disease for several years and had been recently confined for some time to his room and bed. Judge Meade was a son of David Meade, grandson of Col. Richard Kidder Meade, of "Lucky Hit," Clarke county, one of Gen'l. Washington's aides, and a nephew of the late Bishop Meade. He was elected judge to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Judge Chilton for the unexpired term, and the same legislature was elected for the regular term commencing Jan. 1st, 1888, and expiring on the 31st of December of this year. Judge Chas. E. Stuart, judge elect, will probably be appointed by the Governor to fill the vacancy. Judge Meade served a term in the State Senate, and at one time edited the Richmond Whig; he was a versatile and able writer. During the Tilden campaign, he was chairman of the democratic State committee, but subsequently went off with Gen. Mahone. He possessed many excellent qualities and was a genial and estimable gentleman. The announcement of his death will be received with regret by a large circle of relatives and friends. He leaves a wife, several sons, and a daughter. He is the third judge who has died while holding the position of Corporation judge.

COUNTY LAND.—A Washington real estate agent a day or two since in talking with a reporter about property on the Virginia side of the Potomac, said: "During the last year land within four miles west of the Center market has sold for $50 per acre, while land four miles north of the Center market has sold for $6,000 per acre; but since the opening of the Free bridge at Georgetown it is becoming apparent that land on the other side will appreciate in value. The highest price paid for land on that side and near the new bridge up to the present time was for two blocks at Rosslyn, containing 110,250 feet, sold a few days ago by our firm for 6 cents per foot. Mr. A. F. Barker is grading and beautifying 'Ivan wild,' a tract on the Potomac, about half a mile north of the new bridge. Messrs. Lewis, J. Collins, Wm. H. Veitch, and K. A. Phillips are building new houses at Ballston, about 2 1/2 miles west of the bridge. Dr. Bachus, Prof. Jenny, and several others of Washington are building handsome residences at Carlin's Springs. General Curtis and Burdett, the owners of Carlin's Springs, are doing all in their power to make this property attractive. Hundreds of people pass over the Free bridge every day to visit Arlington and view the surrounding country, and more inquiries are now being made concerning the purchase of land in this section than ever before."

AN UNSETTLED QUESTION.—A question has arisen as to whether the City Council has the right to fill the vacancy in the office of tax collector, occasioned by the death of Mr. E. M. Adams. The charter undoubtedly gives the council that power, but it is said that an act of the General Assembly, passed last winter, transferred the power to the judge of the Corporation Court. No copy of the acts of the General Assembly has been received here, and the best informed lawyers are not certain as to the status of the matter. A few days will enable the question to be determined with certainty. A few months since the collector of taxes of Richmond city died and just about the time the council of that city was about to elect his successor it was discovered that his right to do so had been taken away by a recent act of the Legislature, whereupon the judge of the Hustings Court, of that city, filled the vacancy by appointment. It is said that the Richmond case will have a bearing on the question here. Among those prominently mentioned as candidates for the position of collector are Messrs. John T. Hill, M. P. Vincent, F. Gorman, and Ephraim Adams. These gentlemen, it is said, will be candidates either for appointment or election.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was cloudy with rain about 10 o'clock. There were neither prisoners nor lodgers at the station house.

The Mayor this morning disposed of the following cases:

Wm. Spriggs, Wm. Lightfoot, Thos. Arrington and Samuel Chase, all colored, charged with disorderly conduct last Sunday, were made to pay the costs in the case, $2.

A case, growing out of a family quarrel, was dismissed.

A tramp, who was picked up on the street drunk, and who had a set of false teeth hanging from one side of his mouth giving him the appearance of having been assaulted and beaten in the face, was locked up.

MOUNT VERNON AVENUE.—There is a clause in the by-laws of the Mt. Vernon Avenue Association, adopted at their meeting yesterday, which provides that any trustee or member of the association who absents himself from three consecutive meetings of the association shall be declared no longer a member, unless he show good cause for his absence. Before the meeting adjourned several speeches were made, during one of which a prominent democrat remarked that he would support Blaine on a Mount Vernon Avenue platform in preference to any democrat without such a plank in the platform.

THE LAW OF EQUIVALENTS.—A gentleman who takes much interest in the welfare of the city a few days since stopped a reporter of the GAZETTE on the street and told him that within a week five children had been born on one square in the lower part of the city, every one of whom was a girl. The gentleman alluded to wanted to know if this thing kept up where the voters would come from. Yesterday the reporter was informed that there was a lady in the city who had four sons, the eldest of whom is but two years old, the last two being twins, born within the past few days.

DEAD.—Mrs. Elizabeth Baldwin, nee Kearsall, widow of the late Mr. W. Ludwell Baldwin, formerly of this city, died at Berryville, Clarke county, on Saturday last, after a short illness of typhoid pneumonia, which she contracted while visiting her sister, Mrs. Baldwin had many friends and relatives here who will learn of her death with regret.

Coupon Cases in Alexandria County.—The Bondholders' Win.—In the Circuit Court for the county Judge Keith held this morning the act of March, 1887, not allowing a subsequent tender of any other coupons than the "identical ones" originally tendered, is not retrospective and does not apply to tenders made prior to the passage of the act. The result of the ruling was that those who had made tenders for 1886 taxes came into court and tendered coupons attached to bonds and recovered judgment. The Judge also held that he could not enter judgment for costs against the tenderers. An example: "A" tendered coupons, detached from the bond, for 1886 taxes; he was sued, as the State law requires, he comes into court and pleads that he is ready to tender coupons attached to bonds, and proves the genuineness of the bonds; the Court holds the tender good and gives judgment for the tenderer, without requiring him to prove that the coupons originally tendered were genuine, though the coupons, originally tendered, were cut from one class of bonds, say ten-forties, and the bonds, subsequently tendered, were attached to another class of bonds, say consols. In short, the Judge ruled that as a general proposition the tenderer need not be always afterwards ready to tender the identical thing, but may make tender of its equivalent. This ruling does not apply to tenders for 1887 taxes. In such cases, the taxpayer must tender the identical coupons originally tendered. In these cases judgments were entered for the Commonwealth. Test cases are to be made of both sets of cases in the city cases, and carried up, upon the final result of which the county case will depend.

Execution upon all judgments was suspended by stipulation to await the action of the Court of Appeals upon the ruling of this Court.

In these cases Messrs. W. L. Royall and S. F. Beach represented the taxpayers, and Mr. J. E. Clements the Commonwealth.

DECORATION DAY was not observed hereabouts this year, though the occasion was a sort of semi-holiday, the Government employees living here and many others not pursuing their usual avocations. On account of the threatening state of the weather more people remained at home than usual on Decoration Day, though some patronized the excursion steamers, while others went to Arlington where they were observed in due form. The graves of the federal soldiers interred here were strewn with flowers, though the usual ceremonies were dispensed with, and numbers visited the cemetery during the day. A handsome floral tribute to the confederate mound in Christ church yard, was sent here from Washington this morning by North Carolina and Virginia friends. The flowers which came from North Carolina were placed on the mound to day by members of Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, and many visited the spot during the day. The grave of the late Captain Joseph Dent, in the Union cemetery, was handsomely decorated to day by the Elks, of Washington, of which order the deceased had been a member. There was placed on the mound a floral broken wheel, ship, sickle, etc.

CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE COUNTY.—Judge James Keith presiding.—The Aultman Taylor Co. vs. W. H. May & Son, assumpsit; jury and verdict for defendant; appeal noted.

Eppa Hutton, jr., was appointed trustee in place of Randall Hagner and Samuel Maddox.

Com. use of W. H. Smith vs. G. Ransom and R. W. Johnson; suit on indemnifying bond; judgment for plaintiff for $2,000.

T. F. Donaldson vs. E. M. A. Macy; decree for partition and J. K. M. Norton appointed special commissioner.

Com. vs. sundry tax payers on motion to recover amount in money of taxes tendered in coupons; judgment for defendants in cases of 1886 taxes and for Commonwealth in cases of 1887.

Court adjourned till to-morrow morning.

BROKE THROUGH A BRIDGE.—As Messrs. W. B. Glascock and W. H. Dewey, of lower Fairfax county, were crossing Pohick bridge in a two horse wagon early this morning on their way to this city the bridge broke down and precipitated horses, wagon and the two men to the run below, a distance of eighteen feet. Messrs. Glascock and Dewey both escaped with slight injury, but one of the horses was killed and the other badly injured, besides which the wagon was demolished. The bridge is on the Telegraph road, about 12 miles below this city, and had been built only about four years.

COUPONS SUITS.—As heretofore stated Judge James Keith, of the Circuit Court, will hold a special term of that court for this city to-morrow. The coupon cases, which number several hundred, and involve over $10,000, will be heard at this term. Messrs. S. Ferguson Beach, of this city, and Mr. W. L. Royall, of Richmond, will represent the coupon tenderers and Mr. Leonard Marbury the State.

REPUBLICAN MEETING.—A large meeting was held by the republicans of the 21 ward at Crilly's hall last night, which was addressed by Mr. John H. Greene. Resolutions were adopted recommending the removal of the present chairman of the city committee, Mr. Chas. W. Dearborn, and the appointment of Mr. L. W. Corbett in his place.

Facts Worth Knowing.

In all diseases of the nasal mucous membrane the remedy used must be non-irritating. The medical profession has been slow to learn this. Nothing satisfactory can be accomplished with douches, snuffs, powders, syringes, astringents or any similar application, because they are all irritating, do not thoroughly reach the affected surfaces and should be abandoned as worse than failures. A multitude of persons who have for years borne all the worry and pain that catarrh can inflict, testify to radical and permanent cures wrought by Ely's Cream Balm.
